

21 Reasons to Join AAMET International

The International EFT (Emotional Freedom Techniques) Association
Update Version 1.2 | July 2018

There are many reasons to join the AAMET family. When you become a member, you can:

- Be part of a professional association with the highest standards, a robust code of conduct and ethics and a safeguarding statement
- Work with highly experienced trainers who follow a rigorous training ethos, including the only in-person EFT training worldwide
- Support the only international EFT organisation to be formally registered as a charity (UK charity number 1176538) – one committed to advancing and upholding the highest standards for education, training, professional development and promotion of the skilful, creative and ethical application of EFT (Emotional Freedom Techniques) for global public benefit
- Gift-aid membership contributions (UK members) to contribute to advancing EFT; support our commitment to make the best of EFT available to all
- Collaborate, share and learn within our online community
- Access diverse CPD (Continuing Professional Development) opportunities within the AAMET network
- Share tapping skills and collaborate with other AAMET EFT students, practitioners or trainers via our EFT session swap directory
- Improve your international visibility and SEO via our online EFT Practitioner Directory
- Advertise your upcoming EFT trainings and events on our fully google-optimized website, which features country and language-specific SEO (Australia, New Zealand and France)
- Belong to an EFT organisation that can lobby government institutions committed to bringing change
- Benefit from our dedicated Communications Team that supports members via social media campaigns and PR
- Browse our comprehensive library of training documents and resources
- Access ethics support and advice from our experienced Ethics Team
- Access low-cost DBS* checking (UK Members)
- Read the latest EFT Scientific Research via our website and Facebook groups

- As a member involved in research, receive funds from our AAMET EFT Research Fund (and thereby participate in building the evidence base for the use of EFT in mainstream healthcare)
- Keep updated and connected with the latest EFT news and our AAMET community via a monthly members' newsletter
- Participate in the Advancing EFT Community Newsletter, where you can feature your tapping stories, articles and events and reach our growing community mailing list
- Be part of a volunteer-led, welcoming and consensus-based association which is always growing and evolving with the needs of our members
- Join the only EFT organisation that is accepted as a member of UK GRCCT (General Regulatory Council for Complementary Therapies). Practitioners and organisations granted admission to join GRCCT are seen to meet UK General Medical Council guidelines for GP referral and NHS Patient Safety Criteria
- Volunteer on one of our teams and be part of advancing EFT at local, national or international level. Become a member at AAMETInternational.org, and write to us at comms@aamet.org if you would like to volunteer
